Regular super news

Our member newsletters provide members with regular updates. We also issue various e-newsletters throughout the year.

Information on request

You can also request other information that is reasonably required to help you understand your benefit entitlements in the Fund. A copy of the Fund's Trust Deed, audited accounts and other Fund information are published online.

Death benefits

Your death benefit may be paid to any one or more of your dependants and/or your legal personal representative (ie your estate). Where a child is entitled to a death benefit payment, we may determine that the benefit be paid into a trust which has been set up on the child's behalf.

Dependants

A dependant for death benefit distribution purposes (under superannuation legislation) includes:

- > Your spouse including a person who is legally married to you, a person with whom you have a relationship registered under State or Territory law or a person with whom you live on a genuine domestic basis in a relationship as a couple (such as opposite sex or same-sex de facto partners)
- > Your child (of any age[#] including natural, adopted, step or ex-nuptial child and child of your spouse)
- > A person whether related to you or not who, in the opinion of the Trustee, is or was, at any relevant time, wholly or partially financially dependent on you at the time of your death, and
- > A person in an interdependency relationship with you, as evidenced by a close personal relationship, where one or each of you provide the other with financial support and/or domestic support and personal care and may live together. An interdependency relationship can also exist if a close personal relationship exists but the other residential requirements for interdependency are not satisfied because of a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability that requires a person to live in an institution.

[#] The definition of dependant for tax purposes is different. There may be certain tax consequences of paying a death benefit to a child over age 18.

Legal Personal Representative

A Legal Personal Representative (LPR) is the person or organisation you appoint as the executor of your Will or who is appointed as an administrator of your estate if you do not have a valid Will.

Binding Death Benefit nominations

You can provide the Trustee with a Binding Death Benefit Nomination setting out one or more of your dependants and/or LPR for the payment of any death benefits. A duly completed, valid and effective Binding Death Benefit Nomination as at the date of your death must generally be adhered to by the Trustee. The relevant form is available at visionsuper.com.au or by calling our Contact Centre. A Binding Death Benefit Nomination will only be valid and effective if you complete the form correctly and the person you nominate either meet the definition of a dependant under superannuation law or are properly appointed legal personal representatives. A binding nomination will only be valid for three years and you will need to confirm your nomination at least once every three years if you wish to keep it in place. You can, of course, change your nomination at any time by correctly completing another form.

If you have become a member of Active Super Saver as a result of a successor fund arrangement, a binding death benefit nomination previously given by you to the transferring trustee will be treated as binding on the Trustee until it expires or otherwise ceases to have effect.

Preferred Death Benefit beneficiaries

If you nominate one or more preferred beneficiary(s), you are only indicating a preference for a certain beneficiary(s) to receive your death benefit. We will consider your wishes when assessing all of the available information but we are not bound by law to follow your preferred beneficiary nomination.

What happens if you don't have a valid death benefit nomination?

If you don't make a Binding Death Beneficiary Nomination or you don't complete the Beneficiary Nomination form correctly or you complete the Beneficiary Nomination form correctly but it is not valid or effective at the date of death, we will make the decision about how to distribute your death benefit. Before making any decision, we will consider a number of factors including whether:

- > You had dependants
- > You had nominated a preferred beneficiary
- > There is a LPR acting on behalf of your estate.
